

WE'RE BUILDING
A NEW HOME
FOR OUR BRONCOS.

NOW LET'S RALLY
KIDS.

HERE IN COLORADO, WE'RE A PEOPLE OF MANY PASSIONS. WE LOVE OUR WORLD CHAMPION BRONCOS, AND WE'RE BUILDING THEM A MAGNIFICENT FACILITY. WE LOVE OUR CHILDREN, TOO. AND IF WE CAN BUILD A STADIUM, WE CAN SURELY BUILD A HOUSE. BUT WITH JUST A FEW MONTHS TO GO, WE'RE $2 MILLION SHORT OF THE GOAL. OUR KIDS NEED YOUR HELP.

Since 1979, Denver's Ronald McDonald House has been known as "the house that love built," providing shelter and a caring, supportive environment for nearly 18,000 families of critically ill children seeking life-saving medical treatment at nearby Denver hospitals. At just $8 per night—a waivable fee—it's the only place many already burdened families can afford to stay.

As the years go by, the children keep coming. When we had to turn away more than 800 families last year, we made the decision to build. The house that love must build again is the answer to this great need. It will have 35,000 square feet, 31 bedrooms, private bathrooms, 2 kitchens, an elevator, 5 TV lounges and dens, a secured outdoor play area and convenient parking. It will comfort nearly 40,000 families over the next 20 years. It will keep hurting youngsters and their hopeful families together during the most traumatic period of their lives.

The house is scheduled to open in February 2001 at its new location, 1300 East 21st Avenue. In the final moments of a game where they're playing for their lives, only your open hearts and hands will carry the ball over the $2 million goal.
